

BENEFITS OF BEING A TUGATA MEMBER

- TUGATA developed a strategic plan that has made the association remain relevant and responsive to the needs of its membership and contribute effectively to the transformation of the tourism Industry in Uganda.
- Recognition of the airline and industry stakeholders
- TUGATA members prescribe to a code of conduct and professional standards
- Members can display the TUGATA log on their office premises or letterheads confirming that their agency belongs to a trade association
- TUGATA recommends members to IATA whenever they wish to apply for IATA accreditation. Indeed, to belong to IATA, one must be a member of TUGATA
- Recommendation to Uganda Tourism Board and Sanlam General Insurance Uganda for Licenses and DIP cover respectively
- Training opportunities in various subject matter which is core in equipping staff with performance enhancement skills
- Representation on local, regional and international platforms connected with the air travel industry e.g. Our close association with KATA and TASOTA and UFTAA (United Federation of Travel Agents Association)
- TUGATA is a forum whereby members can present their grievances for arbitration
- Lobbying of Government support on important issues
- TUGATA is recognized by IATA as the voice that speaks for the Uganda Travel Agents
- TUGATA acts for and on behalf of its members in discussions and negotiations on industry specific issues
- TUGATA has close partnerships with Britam Insurance and Sanlam General Insurance Uganda so that members can benefit from these partnerships
- TUGATA has an excellent relationship with our two GDS' Amadeus and Travelport who always support the association activities